ASQ MEMBERSHIP

ASQ Membership Join the Movement

More than 6,000 dedicated and passionate members. Fifteen networking Sections in Canada.

Membership in the American Society for Quality (ASQ) offers professionals from around the globe the tools to influence their organizations every day, provide insight into the positive effects of quality, and inspire communities and leaders to take action by utilizing the tools provided by their ASQ membership.

For more than 60 years, ASQ has been home to quality professionals in the world. From certification to professional development, networking to knowledge, ASQ is the world's leading source of quality information and expertise with more than 90,000 members worldwide.

Get connected.

Through our 15 local Sections throughout Canada, our 6,000 members, and the incredible tools and resources at your disposal, you become empowered to provide a positive impact on the bottom line, differentiate your company from the competition, and demonstrate more value to your customers.

Get involved.

When you join ASQ, you become part of a community striving to advance the field of quality to improve our professions, our organizations, our communities, and our world.

Several levels of membership are available in ASQ.

Regular membership offers flexibility and comprehensive value to the membership experience.

Associate membership is designed for individuals who choose ASQ membership as a supplement to their primary professional association. Benefits are primarily delivered electronically.

Forum/Division membership allows individuals interested in a very specific area of quality to join that industry or topic group only.

Student membership helps launch students on their path to professional success.

One major benefit of joining ASQ is the instant access to ASQ Canada.

ASQ Canada is...

- A community of professionals striving to bring quality to their work and their lives
- Over 6,000 individuals and 9 corporate members in 15 Sections, coast to coast
- Part of the world's largest organization dedicated to promoting quality
- A WorldPartner with the National Quality Institute (NQi) organization that administers the Canada Awards for Excellence
- Advancing quality in all sectors, including manufacturing, service, healthcare, government, and education
